

Great Cash Sale

...AT...

WELLS & WILLARD'S STORE

GLOVER, VT.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SAVE MONEY.

We are determined to convert our Entire Stock of Winter Goods into Cash within the next 30 days.

Sale Begins Wednesday, Feb. 8, 1905

All our Underwear, Hosiery, Ladies' rappers, Flannels, Outings, Gloves, Mittens, Men's and Boys' Flannel Shirts, Sweaters, Coats, Caps, Toques, Pants, Ladies' Lined Shoes, Bed Blankets, Horse Blankets, Lamps, Crockery, Tinware, Etc., will be sold

AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES FOR CASH.

1000 Yards Empress and Cinderella Flannellettes

Regular Price 10 an 2 Cents a Yard.

To Close at

6 1-2 Cents a Yard.

Not Over 25 Yards to a Customer.

Men's $1.00 Underwear,	79c
" 50c "	39c
Ladies' 1.00 Underwear	79c
" 50c "	39c
" 25c "	19c
" 1.00 Union Suits,	79c
" 50c "	39c
Boys 25c Underwear,	19c
Misses 25c "	19c
Children's 50c wool "	39c
Men's 4.00 Sweaters	2.50
" 3.00 "	2.39
" 2.50 "	1.89
" 2.25 "	1.69
" 2.00 "	1.39
" 1.25 "	.89
Boys' 1.50 "	1.12
" 1.25 "	.99
" 1.00 "	.69
Men's 85c Winter Caps	.65
" 50c "	.39
Boys' 50c "	.39c
1 Lot 1.00 Bed Blankets	.75
" 1.48 "	1.18
" 1.75 "	1.38
Men's 1.50 fl'n'l overshirts	1.12
" 1.25 "	.99
" 1.00 "	.79
" 50c fl'e'd j's'y "	.39
" 1.00 "	.69

Men's 2 25 Wool Pants	1.68
" 2.50 "	1.75
" 1.87 "	1.38
" 1.50 "	1.12
" 98c "	.68
1 Lot Men's 2 00 Russian
Vests,	1.69
1 Lot 3 25 Street horse bl'k'ts	2.50
" 3 00 "	2.48
" 2 00 "	1.48
" 1 25 "	.98
1 Lot 2 50 Stable	1.98
" 2 25 "	1.75
" 2 00 "	1.48
" 1 75 "	1.38
" 1 50 "	1.18
" 1 45 "	1.18
" 1 25 "	.98
" 98c "	.75
" 3 50 Lamps	2.50
(Beautiful Patterns)
1 Lot 2 00 Lamps	1.38
" 1 50 "	1.12
" 1 18 "	.89
All 50c Gloves and Mittens,	.35
Pontiacs,	.25
Henry Disston Cross-Cut Saws	1.50
All Crockery, Tinware, Boilers,
Wash Tubs, Wringers Etc, will be sold at a discount of 20 Per Cent.
during this sale.

Ladies' $1.50, 1.25, 1.12 WRAPPERS, . . . 98c

Ladies' $1.00 WRAPPERS, . . . 69c

The terms of this Sale are Strictly Spot Cash No Goods will be charged at these prices. Remember the date, FEBRUARY 8, 1905, and plan to get the benefit of these low prices.

WELLS & WILLARD,

GLOVER, VERMONT.

N. B.--Remember, we sell
ALL KINDS OF GROCERIES AT ROCK BOTTOM PRICES.

LOCAL NEWS.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.

Mrs. Siloway, who has been caring for Mrs. Lucy Patterson's mother, returned to her home in Wolcott last week.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY.

A number of Academy scholars were sick last week.

Mrs. Emma Allen, who has been sick the past four weeks, is gaining slowly.

Miss Lilla Larabee is at George Chase's, sick with the mumps.

The friends of Mrs. R. C. Moodie will be sorry to learn that she has sprained both of her ankles. Mr. and Mrs. Moodie are stopping in Los Gatos, California.

DERBY.

Ben Heath is out again after his illness. Rufus Blake returned recently from a trip to New York.

The graded school closed Friday, after a very successful term.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rand of Denver, Col. are guests at Dr. Comings'.

Fifty-six couples attended the dance at the Town hall last Friday evening.

The Derby Academy students enjoyed a social at the hall Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Bugtes of Derby Line were guests at Harry Rickard's last Thursday.

Frank Harvey was in Coaticook the first of last week, looking after his property there.

Hovey C. Clark of this place has been appointed 1st Sergeant in the battalion at U. V. M.

Don't forget the Valentine sale and supper at the Town hall Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Tripp and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Buck of East Charleston were in town to attend the dance Friday evening.

Dedication services of the M. E. church will be held Feb. 21 at 1:30, followed by services during the week. Rev. J. O. Sherrburne will conduct the services.

WEST DERBY.

M. and Mrs. H. L. Paquin recently visited friends in Coaticook, P. Q.

Mrs. Kate Nichols is caring for Mrs. S. E. Hitchcock, who is still very ill.

Mrs. H. C. Allbee is visiting her sister, Mrs. Annie Galbraith, in Enosburg Falls.

Mrs. Ezra Darling, who is here visiting friends, soon enters a Boston hospital for medical treatment.

There will be a donation visit at the F. B. vestry tomorrow (Tuesday) evening for Rev. Edwin Blake. All will be welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moulton buried a daughter Thursday. She died on Tuesday of Bright's disease and was confined to the bed but two days before her death. She was about fourteen years of age.

GLOVER.

Vernon Clark is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. French of St. Johnsbury were in town last Thursday.

The condition of Mrs. Hannah Sargent is much improved since last week.

Wells & Willard are selling out their stock of winter goods at greatly reduced prices. Read their advertisement in this paper.

There will be a ball and supper at Lawrence's hall So. Glover, Wednesday evening, Feb. 22nd. Hall tickets 50c per couple and supper tickets 50c per couple.

The Earnest Workers will hold a social Wednesday afternoon and evening, Feb. 15, at Mrs. E. Richardson's. Ice cream, baked beans and hot coffee will be served. Everyone cordially invited.

Young's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the drama, "Judazuma" which will be given at Institute Hall Wednesday evening, Feb. 22, by Orleans Council, No. 40, Jr. O. U. A. M. There will be a dance and supper after the play.

We would like to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our loved one, also to the friends of the P. and H. for their floral contribution, and the singers.

Mrs. ADRIAN WILLIAMS,

JESSE C. WILLIAMS.

Charles Silver has sold his place at the village to B. H. Wilson for $1050. The place will be occupied by Ernest Wilson, who will move in just as soon as Mr. Silver vacates. Ernest has the contract for carrying the mail for the next four years. Mr. Silver has bargained for a place at Barton.

The remains of Mrs. Edith Berwick, wife of William Berwick and a daughter of W. C. Basford, were brought here for burial from Springfield, Mass., last Tuesday, and the funeral was held at the Methodist church. She had been ill for some years from consumption. Her clergyman, the Rev. Mr. Nelson of Springfield, came here to officiate at the funeral.

Glover Grange will give a Valentine entertainment at Institute Hall Tuesday evening, Feb. 14. A short literary program, consisting of music, songs and a laughable farce entitled, "Sister Masons". A Valentine supper will be served; each lady is requested to bring two valentines exactly alike. Music will be furnished for dancing after the entertainment. Admission to entertainment, 15 cents supper, 15 cents a couple; dancing gentlemen, 25 cents, ladies, free.

WEST GLOVER.

Rev. Geo. P. Rowell was in Montpelier two days last week.

A New England telephone was installed at Geo. Humphrey's last week.

Members of John Smith's and John A. Urie's families are ill with the grip.

Alison Clark is boarding at his sister's Mrs. E. O. Randall, while Mrs. Clark is away.

N. C. Stevens has traded his span of Foss horses with N. T. Lyman for his large pair of farra horses.

Mrs. Alison Clark is at Geo. Humphrey's caring for her daughter, who is having a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Herman Prescott has bought the place known as the Bennett place and a piece of land adjoining H. Barber's of H. R. Cutler.

One of the events of the week was the marriage of Reuben C. Stevens to Miss Lucy Calderwood. Congratulations extended to Mr. and Mrs. Stevens by their many friends.

The closing exercises of Mrs. Woodard's school passed off very pleasantly and the collection taken at the close showed that the audience enjoyed the program and approved of the object for which it was given.

The names of pupils having no marks during the winter term of the West Glover school, taught by Mrs. Mattie Woodward, are: David and Lewis Wright, Gladys Cameron, Percy Nye, Clyde Barber, Agnes and Bertha Gilmour and Vera Lewis.

GREENSBORO.

Alden Perrin is improving.

L. A. Jackson was in Barton Friday.

Carl Philbrook lost a horse last week.

Mrs. Mary Jardins is very sick with grip.

Miss Edith Bronson is working at W. A. Jackson's.

Carlie Soiers is seriously ill with neuralgia around the heart.

A. C. Chase was in Wheelock Friday and Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olmstead are the happy parents of a girl baby.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bailey are glad to see them back in town again.

Armour Babcock is getting out lumber for a new house to be built the coming spring.

The Y. P. S. C. C. will hold a social at the Congregational parsonage Tuesday evening Feb. 14.

Dr. F. C. Kinney spent Saturday and Sunday in Bakersfield with his son Albert, who attends school there.

Mrs. John B. Cook has an orange tree measuring only four and one-half inches in height, which has a perfect and very fragrant blossom.

GREENSBORO BEND.

Mrs. J. H. Clark is sick with grip.

George Randall visited in town recently.

Henry Boardman of Wolcott was in town Friday.

J. H. Pope and family visited in Jeffersonville recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis visited in Hardwick recently.

Ritchie & Ufford lost one of their pair of white horses last week.

W. Daniels was the guest of his father, H. S. Daniels, last week.

Isaac Piper, who has been confined to the house, is able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bailey of East Craftsbury called on friends here recently.

Miss Lizzie Holden of Palmer, Mass., spent a few days with friends here last week.

James Cool, who sustained a paralytic shock last week, is no better at this writing.

John Barr and Frank Amsden have had a private telephone line put in between their houses.

George Hartson and daughters, Miss Maud Hartson and Mrs. Blanche Shaw, visited in Plainfield last week.

IRASBURG.

Lloyd Clough remains very ill.

Mrs. Dion is improving in health.

Rev. J. E. Knapp is slowly improving.

All of the schools in the out districts closed last Friday.

Henry Goss has sold his Morrill hill farm to Ernest Wells.

Rufus Place of Hyde Park is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Walden Priest.

Rev. I. P. Chase preached in the Methodist church yesterday morning.

Miss Maddie Sanborn is with her sister, Mrs. Charles Hannant, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Leighton is entertaining her friend Mrs. Pease of Burlington, at H. B. Chamberlain's.

H. B. Chamberlain returned from his trip to Boston and Manchester last Saturday night.

Mrs. Mattie Woodward has closed a successful term of school in Glover and returned home.

Arthur Webster has taken the C. W. Wheeler farm in Albany, as Mr. Parker was unable to carry on the place.

Mrs. Sears, who is spending the winter with her sister in Woonsocket, R. I., has been very ill, but is reported better.

Frank Sanville, stone mason and general jobber in Lebanon, N. H., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles Dion.

Little Wayne Cowles of Barton Landing has been staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill the past week.

Quite a large company attended the Ladies' Aid society at Fred Going's last Thursday. The occasion was a very pleasant one.

Mr. Hogaboom has moved into his house purchased of F. J. Grant. Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Clark will occupy one part of the house.

George Macia met with a serious accident while chopping in the woods last Thursday, cutting a severe gash in his left leg splintering the bone.

Very encouraging reports have been heard from William Parker, who has been in the Victoria hospital, Montreal, the past two weeks. It is thought he will regain the use of his leg.

The Epworth League will give a sociable at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Webster Friday evening, Feb. 17. Everybody is most cordially invited. Ladies are requested to bring cake.

The exhibition at the Morrill Hill school was a complete success in spite of the weather. A collection was taken which amounted to $4.00. May Clough has had no absent marks during the year; Maynard Watson and Leta Grant have had only one absent mark; those having no marks this term are Leta Grant and Mahlon Dow.

The Orleans County Rural Letter Carriers' Association will hold their county meeting at Irasburg, Vermont, Feb. 22, 1905, at 10 a. m. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the interests of rural service in our state, to promote fellowship and good cheer among the carriers, discuss the advisability of organizing a state association.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will give a party in the Court house hall on evening Feb. 14. An interesting program has been arranged which will include, a farce and tableaux vivants, a social 15 cents. Lunch boxes will be sold at ten cents each. Ladies are invited to bring a box with lunch. All come and enjoy the evening.

Edgar Gaudett, aged about 15 years Monday Feb. 6, of inflammation of bowels, after an illness of only four days. He was a bright, intelligent young man and highly esteemed by parents, brothers and sisters having a pathy of many friends in their town. The funeral was held in the Catholic church in Barton Wednesday, and the burial in the Barton cemetery.

LOWELL.

Milo Hines was on the sick list last week.

R. E. Winchester was in Barton last week.

Clement Barre is in Montpelier.

Our new advertiser is the W. E. estate.

Mrs. John Smith is very sick with trouble.

Morris Farman returned from last week.

F. B. Lambert was in Barton last week.

Harvey and Hazen Stewart were in Irasburg last week Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Edwards, recently visited at H. J. Edmonds, recently.

L. O. Sanborn jammed his foot two logs Monday, causing a painful injury.

Miss N. Grace Cooledge has gone to Johnsbury for a two weeks' visit to her brother, Dwight Cooledge.

The school census ending Feb. 1, shows 235 children between the ages of 5 and 18 years, 118 boys and 117 girls.

The youngest daughter of Paul D. of Westfield was buried in the cemetery Sunday, Rev. Fr. F. of Barton officiating.

CASWELL'S MILLS.

The men finished drawing logs from the mill last Saturday.

Henry Demick and wife have been visiting relatives and friends here last week.

J. A. Bradford and A. J. Appleton to Ayer's Cliff last Sunday to attend the funeral of Homer Ayer.

Little Willie Smith was taken very ill last Wednesday afternoon and died day night; the doctors pronounced indigestion. Willie was a bright fellow. The sorrowing family sympathize of all.

MORGAN.

Water is very low and has stopped many places.

Miss Knowlton received news of the death of her brother in Canada.

Ivan Peavey has been confined to his house for several days with an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Jennie Clapper entertained pupils Wednesday with a candy social time.

Rev. Mr. Cone was in town the last week calling on the members of the congregation.

Taxpayers wishing to vote must have their taxes paid before Feb. 15, in order to vote on the new law.

Nora Courser, who has been working at Will Sykes', has been sick and has her home for a rest.

A. M. Gray and son Milford returned from their trip to Massachusetts and southern Vermont.

Rena Whitehill has attended school years and has been absent only a few days. Can any one give a better record?

The Ladies' Aid Society are to give a supper in the church on Tuesday evening, Feb. 14. All invited.

Myron Young closed a successful term of school at the Gore Feb. 10. The class have not missed a word in during the term.

The C. E. Society had special last Wednesday evening, it being "Devotion Day," the 24th anniversary of the founding of the society.

NEWPORT.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bacon have returned from their trip to Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cairns of Barnard, Mass., visited here during the past week.

The annual roll call of the Congregational church will be held next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Avery recently entertained at her home.

H. Fuller and Miss Ingham of Shelburne and Miss McDougal of Stanstead.

A number of photographs of the late Mr. Goodrich Memorial Library.

The Newport basketball team defeated the Lowell team 22 to 5 last Wednesday night. The next game is with the Westfield team.

Next Friday afternoon the anniversary prayer meeting will be held at the Baptist church. All are urged to attend.

W. Richmond started last Monday for a trip to Porto Rico and America in company with Dr. H. C. Ham of Burlington.

Supt. E. A. Cook of the water works sent a warning to the consumers allowing water to run unnecessarily. Many people are now without any water.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society met Friday with Mrs. B. T. Webb of West Derby as the guest.

Liquor illegally and was sentenced thirty days in the workhouse.

The box party given in Academy hall Friday night for the benefit of the Association netted about $11. The